Repeated early death

Read 1 Samuel 2 specifically starting at the 31st verse. You need to read the whole chapter to get context, especially if you are trying to identify why this has occurred in your own life.

I would like to say that not all death is a sign of a curse. We all will leave this earth, but a pattern of death around the same ages, for the same cause, is cause to pause and seek the lord about the matter. Don't be one of the fools who fall for "it's hereditary," "It happens in my family," "This is just how we are." .....

Hebrews 9:27- Just as people are destined to die once, and after that to face judgment,

I remember someone telling a story that the men in the family all suffered from blindness. (I can't remember where I heard the story, so please excuse me. I don't even know if the story was fabricated. I have, however, seen this same thing in many lives.

I shared a story of sudden dementia that ran in a lady's family in this video:

<https://youtu.be/4pj1LGRtGV4>

, but because this is the story Holy Spirit has placed on my heart this morning, I will share it.

One day, the great-grandfather was asked a question that brought to light the root of the problem.

Turns out there was a blind beggar, and they threw the man in the river (I do not remember for what reason ) on his way down ( to drown ). He cursed the man and his family. I don't remember verbatim, but he pronounced his condition on the man's descendants, and there the curse began.

Now that was a short description, but the man was young when this happened and had grown old; generations had come after him, and it was just something that they began to see as "normal" in the family.

I can think of the lady that I spoke about in the video. She lived her life knowing that this "dementia" happened to her mother's children (all the girls, specifically).

One day on her way back home, she got lost and literally lost her mind. She was young in her late 40s. The unfortunate thing is that I knew that the lady who hired me to do this massage for her mom was next up. If she did not make it right with the Lord through repentance. I can't tell you how the story ended.

I was kicked off the schedule due to not getting a COVID-19 vaccination before I had the revelation that I'm sharing with you now.

Satan is real and active, and I'm more than sure he had his hand in making sure that I was not available to the family when the Lord was ready to give me this revelation...

why? Because it would set the captives free!

As I sit here typing, freemasonry is coming to mind, selling yourself and your generations for connections and wealth.

Proverbs 26:2, which states,

"Like a sparrow in its flitting, like a swallow in its flying, so a curse causeless shall not come."

So, until there was repentance by the descendants for what the great-grandfather had done, the curse would remain.

The person who recounted the story did not discuss if the family was impoverished or not, but because the man was a beggar, I can assume that was a part of the curse as well. I mean, how much can a blind man make for himself?

seek the Lord while he may be found.

The prayer

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank you! We thank you that you are sovereign, we thank you that nothing is hidden from you, we thank you that you are just and merciful. No deed goes unnoticed and no wickedness unpunished. Father, we ask that you shine the light of your truth into our innermost being. We ask that you shine the light of truth into our very cells, into the cells of our bloodline. And father in the name of Jesus, we ask that you reveal those things that have been hidden from us, those things that are still crying out against us, and we plead the blood of Jesus!

which speaks louder than the blood of Abel, which speaks louder than our situation, which speaks louder than the curse ...

We plead the blood of Jesus, the blood that will set the captive free. We acknowledge that you died on the cross of Calvary so that we could be free, so light of truth! Light of Freedom set us free. reach back into time, for you are seated on the outside of time, far above and far beyond time. reach your mighty hand into time...where that evil was done, where that sin was done ( if you know its name), where that blood is still crying out, the altar of that curse, where that evil agreement was made and cover it in your blood...

condemn it with your Holy fire in the name of Jesus! and set us free! Set our children free from every place where that thing has found a place to land and has held us captive in Jesus' name. We Repent! We turn from the ways of those before us... We turn to you for provision, we turn to you for direction, destroy every idol raised up in our bloodlines.... We renounce the idols of our bloodlines, we renounce the idols of this wicked generation, we renounce our American idols, and we set you back on your rightful throne as KING OF KINGS AS LORD OF LORDS AS LORD OF ALL IN JESUS' NAME WE PRAY AMEN!

Keep praying as Holy Spirit leads. This was just a small message he has given me this morning. Allow Yah to take you deeper into prayer and truth. Amen.
